Mobile First Access To Every Photo, Every Shipment, Every Time

The Smarter Way to Access & Share Shipment Proofs
From the Dock to Your Pocket: LoadProof Viewer Puts Shipment Photos in Reach

LoadProof Viewer

Empowering On The Go Logistics

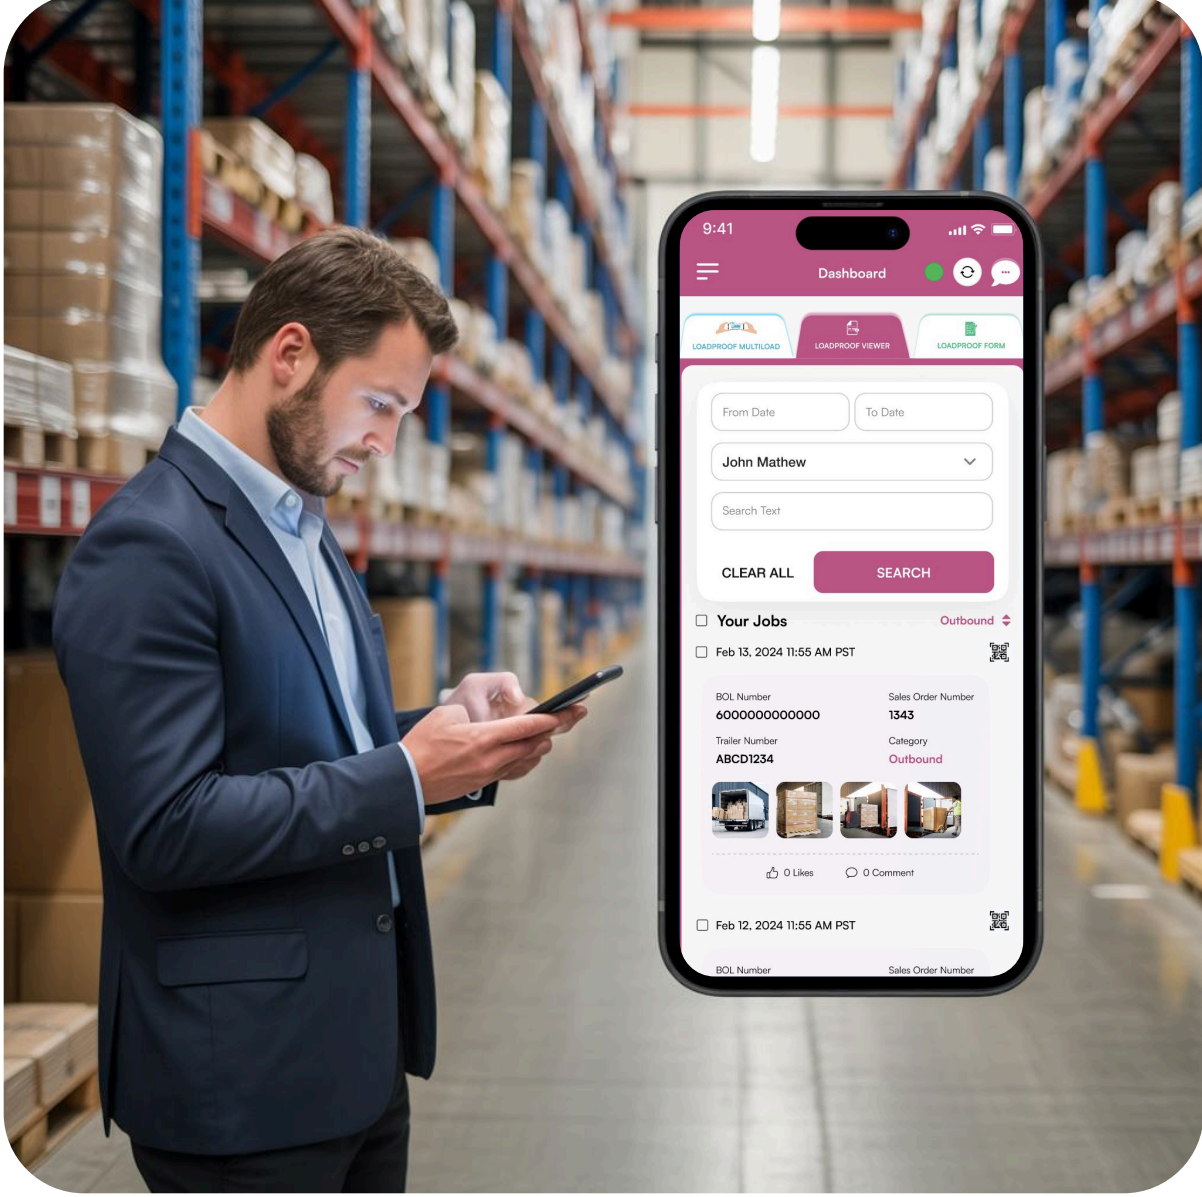

In today's fast-paced supply chain, waiting to get back to a desk to verify a shipment just doesn't cut it. LoadProof Viewer puts the full visual history of your shipments in your pocket so you can respond, resolve, and report from anywhere.
From warehouse floors to customer calls, this mobile app empowers logistics teams with the visibility they need to make confident decisions on the spot.

Key Benefits:

That Make Supply Chain Life Easier

- Designed for Teams on the Move
LoadProof Viewer is purpose-built for real-world operations, supporting supervisors on the floor, managers in the field, and dock operators who require fast and reliable access to shipment details. It's mobility that matches how your team works.
- Visibility Without the Desktop
Logistics doesn't wait for you to get back to your desk. With LoadProof Viewer, there's no need to log into a PC. Whether you're walking the warehouse, in a meeting, or offsite, your phone becomes a powerful tool for shipment verification, delivering instant, on-the-go access to critical proof.

- Instant Visibility into Shipment Proof
Quickly review recent load activity through a user-friendly dashboard. Drill into any load to view essential shipment details, including date, time, location, and the responsible team member. View time-stamped images from picking to loading, so you can validate conditions and ensure accuracy with confidence
- Streamlined Sharing and Collaboration
Easily share load records with internal teams or external partners using the secure "Send Load Link" feature—no downloads or logins required. Users can leave comments or mark images with likes, helping teams collaborate, resolve issues, and maintain accountability—all within the same platform.
