Organize Smarter with Custom Categories in LoadProof

With Custom Categories, you can organize, label, and track your shipments exactly how your operations require. Whether it's inbound, outbound, quality checks, or dispatch, you can create categories that reflect the way your warehouse truly works.

This flexibility helps teams stay organized, reduces confusion across shifts, and ensures every load is exactly where it should be. With a cleaner structure and faster access to the right information, your entire workflow becomes more transparent, reliable, and easy to manage, no matter how complex your operations are.

Key Benefits of LoadProof Custom Categories

Seal your shipments with structure and speed, powered by LoadProof's Custom Category feature.

Create Categories That Fit Your Workflow

Design your own categories based on how your operation runs, inbound, outbound, gate-in, gate-out, or any other workflow. Tailor it to match your process, not the other way around.

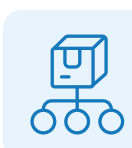

Find Loads in Seconds

Stop wasting time searching through long lists. With smart categorization, LoadProof makes it effortless to locate any load instantly, keeping your audits, reporting, and daily operations running smoothly.

Keep Data Consistent Across Operations

Maintain standard naming and structure across all your sites by mapping the same metadata to multiple categories. This consistency ensures accuracy and eliminates confusion across teams.

Keep Every Load in Its Right Place

From machining to quality checks and dispatch, assign loads to clearly defined categories so your team always knows where things stand. It's simple, organized, and built for efficiency.

Set Up in Minutes, Not Hours

Creating categories is quick and intuitive. LoadProof's easy-to-use setup tools enable you to configure and adjust categories without requiring complex steps or technical assistance.

Adapt as You Grow

Your business evolves, and your categories should too. With LoadProof, you can easily add, edit, or reorganize categories as processes change, keeping your operations flexible and future-ready.
